

EVENTS

SAMUDRA - OCTOBER 2009

Celebration for T.K. Govinda Rao

V e t e r a n musician T.K. Govinda Rao completes 81 years and 65 years of service in the field of music and this will be marked by a grand celebration on

1st November

(5.30p.m onwards) at Raga Sudha Hall, Chennai. Students of TKG Gurukulam will be presenting six Vivadi Varnas composed by TKG and a cassette of the same will be released. There will also be a power point presentation of TKG - his life and contribution and also message from senior musicians. A host of eminent personalities from the music fraternity including P.S.Narayanaswamy, V.V. Subramanyam, T.K.Murthy, Guruvayur Durai, Suguna Purushottaman, R. Vedavalli, N.Murali, Dr. Prameela Gurumurthi and Dr. Radha Bhaskar will felicitate TKG.

Workshop at Bangalore

A workshop is being organised on compositions of Veena Seshanna at Bangalore. Dr. R.K. Srikantan will conduct the music workshop from 20th to 27th November and Adyar Lakshman will direct the dance work shop from 1st to 7th December 2009. This is organised by the Swaramurthy V.N. Rao Memorial Trust and South Central Zone Cultural Centre in Collaboration with the Nadam and Ananya. Interested artistes may contact Mysore V. Subramanya Tel : 080-23313272 / 9845054659